Group Research

What questions would you like to ask the author or participants?

What can I learn from another written source?

What can I learn from a visual source?

Background of author/creator

What can I learn from an audio source?

What questions do I have about anything in this source?

What questions would I like to ask the author or participants in this source?

What aspect(s) of this event offers an opportunity for further research?