

Learning Intentions:

Success Criteria:

Describe the classroom experiences that will support students.

How can the key learning be assessed?

Ensure assessment aligns with the chosen Learning Outcomes and their associated Action Verbs

Learning Intentions:

A learning intention for a lesson or series of lessons is a statement, created by the teacher, that describes clearly what the teacher wants the students to know, understand, and be able to do following learning and teaching activities.

Success Criteria:

Success Criteria aligns with the learning intentions and are developed by the teacher or co-created with the students. It describes what success looks like.

Describe the classroom experiences that will support students.

- Describe how the key learning will be brought to life in the classroom.
- Consider what strategies and resources will support students in experiencing the key learning.

How can the key learning be assessed?

- Develop ideas on how the key learning can be assessed.
- Does the assessment align with the learning outcomes and the action verbs?